

Tape 1975

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SERIES

WALTER HALL, 2:10 PM

NOVEMBER 18, 1982

---

edward johnson building faculty of music university of toronto

Recital and Discussion: "Brass Performance"

by

IFOR JAMES

IFOR JAMES is undoubtedly one of the world's leading horn soloists. He has studied under Aubrey Brain at the Royal Academy of Music and after being principal horn with several leading orchestras, has established himself as a player of world stature. Largely concerned with solo and chamber music he undertakes extensive tours both in the United Kingdom and abroad. His large repertoire includes many works written especially for him by leading composers. He has performed as concerto soloist with numerous orchestras and his chamber music commitments include the Philip Jones Brass Ensemble, the Schiller Trio and a duo with John McCabe. Mr. James is a gifted lecturer and as such, has already toured Canada, the United States and Britain. His records include performances with Britten and Barenboim, the Mozart horn quintet, Brahms horn trio and solo recitals with Wilfrid Parry and John McCabe.

Next Thursday Afternoon Series lecture by Prof. Godfrey Ridout

"Some Aspects of Victorian Music" on November 25th has been cancelled.